HUXTERS

Concave is a unique opportunity for Dealers of various kinds to sell their wares to a crowd of fans gathered to celebrate all that is Fandom at Kentucky's Longest Running Science-Fiction Convention. Dealer rooms are located in the Concave Village area of the Hotel. All of the pool atrium rooms are reserved for this usage. A single Dealer's table is available for the low low cost of $60. A Dealer's room is available for $220 and can be configured in various ways. For example if you want to sleep in your room we can have the hotel leave a bed or even just a mattress. Unless specified otherwise the room will come furnished with only lighting and up to 4 tables. It is important to note that the Concave Village is a 24-Hour non-stop noise machine so if you have trouble sleeping then maybe you would want to avoid sleeping in your Dealer room. That of course also means that it is a 24-hour stream of buyers and if you have your own room you can set the hours of operation yourself! Split room hours are decided by consensus of the Dealer's who occupy them. Additionally the cost of the room or table does not include the cost of membership. Membership is required for everyone in attendance but is only $30 in advance and $40 at the door. Membership includes unlimited access to our 24-hour Consuite (beer, wine, liquor, sodas, and food). What?! Yes, folks if you like the idea of all you can drink Newcastle we got it! We serve four full meals (Friday Night, Saturday Morning, Saturday Night, and Sunday Morning) and run a "Super Bowl" buffet 24 hours a day (Sandwich makings, chips, veggie trays, etc.). All of this included for $30?? Where do I sign up??
